

The Presentation of Christ in the Temple (Candlemas) Sung Eucharist - 4 February 2018

Please use in conjunction with the red “Together in Song” (TiS) Hymn book.

Welcome

A warm welcome to all who are worshipping with us on this Festival of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple, the final Sunday in the season of Epiphany, during which we will participate in the Candlemas Liturgy.

We extend a special welcome if you are visiting or are new to St Luke’s. Please make yourself known as we would like to make you feel at home with us and join us for morning tea in the Lower Hall at the conclusion of the service. Some further information which should assist your time here at St Luke’s is set out on the next page, together with the names of people we are holding in prayer at this time.

In our service today, I will be Presiding; Natalie McDonald, Lay Minister, will be assisting as Deacon and the Reverend Peter Kurti, Associate Priest, will be Preaching. Kids@Church will be led by Danielle Firholz and Kati Saavo.

Entrance Hymn

You servants of God - TiS 215 (Tune: Laudate Dominum)

Greeting

Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever.

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Kids@Church

The Presider says:

I invite children who are going to Kids@Church, with their parents if they wish, to come forward.

The children, parents and Kids@Church leaders gather at the chancel steps.

Children of God, today at Kids@Church, you will be hearing about how Jesus' actions help us to care for one another. So, we bless you as you head to Kids@Church. May God's love fill your hearts with love and may your lives be marked by hope and joy. Amen.

Kids@Church participants leave by the South Door.

Sentence

My eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.

[Luke 2.30-32]

Prayer of Preparation

Let us pray.

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Kyries

Please sit to sing

The Mosman Setting by Samuel Donovan

Invitation to Confession and Absolution

Hear the words of our Saviour Jesus Christ:
'I am the light of the world.
Whoever follows me shall never walk in darkness
but shall have the light of life.'

Let us therefore bring our sins into his light and confess them in penitence and faith.

Merciful God,
 our maker and our judge,
 we have sinned against you
 in thought, word, and deed,
 and in what we have failed to do:
 we have not loved you with our whole heart;
 we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
 we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
 Father, forgive us.
 Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:
 pardon you and set you free from all your sins,
 strengthen you in all goodness
 and keep you in eternal life,
 through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Gloria

Please stand

Musical score for "The Gloria" in G major, 4/4 time. The score consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (F major), and a 4/4 time signature. It features a dynamic marking of f (forte) and a fermata over the first measure. The lyrics "Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and peace to God's peo-ple on" are written below the staff. The second staff starts with a dynamic marking of mf (mezzo-forte) and continues the melody with the lyrics "earth. Lord God, heav'n-ly King, al-migh-ty God and Fa-ther, we". The third staff continues the melody with the lyrics "wor-ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo-ry.". The fourth staff concludes the phrase with a dynamic marking of f and a fermata over the final measure, with the lyrics "Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and peace to God's peo-ple on earth."

The Collect

Almighty and everliving God,
we humbly pray
that, as your only Son was presented in the temple
in accordance with the law,
so we may be dedicated to you with pure and clean hearts;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading

A reading from the book of Malachi

See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight - indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

[Malachi 3.1-4]

Hear the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Please remain seated while the choir sings the psalm

Psalm 24 (Chant: W. Boyce)

The earth is the Lord's, and all that therein is:

the compass of the world and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas:

and prepared it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord:

or who shall rise up in his holy place?

Even he that hath clean hands and a pure heart:

and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbour.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord:

and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek him:

even of them that seek thy face, O Jacob.

Lift up your heads O ye gates, and be ye lift up ye everlasting doors:

and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory:

it is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up ye everlasting doors:

and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory:

even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

The Second Reading

A Reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

The Gospel Reading

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Today the Lord is presented in the temple:

as the Light of the Nations and Glory of Israel. Alleluia!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke, Chapter 2 beginning at the 22nd verse.

✠Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, ‘Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord’), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, ‘a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons.’

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

‘Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace,
according to your word;
for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.’

And the child’s father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, ‘This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too.’

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favour of God was upon him.

[Luke 2.22-40]

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

✠Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Sermon - The Reverend Peter Kurti, Associate Priest

The Candlemas Liturgy

Please stand as the Presider presents the Pascal candle

May the light and peace of Jesus Christ our Lord be with you.

And also with you.

The congregation "light" (i.e. "turn on") their candles as the choir sings the Nunc Dimitus : Setting in C minor - C. Wood

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace : according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen : thy salvation,

Which thou hast prepared : before the face of all people; To be a light to lighten the Gentiles : and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son:

and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, Lord our God, King of the universe.

You make our darkness to be light.

For with you is the well of life and in your light shall we see light.

Blessed be God for ever.

Lord God, the springing source of everlasting light,

pour into the hearts of your faithful people

the brilliance of your eternal splendour,

that we, who by these kindling flames

light up this temple to your glory,

may have the darkness of our souls dispelled,

and so be counted worthy to stand before you

in that eternal city where you live and reign,

Father, Son and Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever. Amen.

We wait for your loving-kindness, O Lord,

in the midst of your temple.

Open to us the gates of righteousness,

that we may enter and give thanks to the Lord.

God is the Lord who has shown us light.

Let us offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness.

Lord, you fulfilled the hope of Simeon and Anna,
who lived to welcome the Messiah:
may we, who have received these gifts beyond words,
prepare to meet Christ Jesus when he comes to bring us to eternal life;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

The Greeting of Peace

In the tender mercy of our God,
the dayspring from on high has broken upon us,
to give light to those who dwell in darkness
and the shadow of death,
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

The congregation now turns off their candles, which will be collected while they exchange the Greeting of Peace.

The Offertory

Offertory Hymn

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness - TiS 454 (Tune: Was Lebet)

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.
Through your goodness we have these gifts to share.
Accept and use our offerings for your glory
and for the service of your kingdom.

Blessed be God for ever.

san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san-na in the high - est.

Merciful God, we thank you for these gifts of your creation,
this bread and wine,
and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit,
we who eat and drink them
may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.
On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread;
and when he had given you thanks
he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,
'Take, eat. This is my body given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.'
After supper he took the cup,
and again giving you thanks
he gave it to his disciples, saying,
'Drink from this, all of you.
This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Deacon: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is ris'n. Christ will come a-gain.

Therefore we do as our Saviour has commanded:
proclaiming his offering of himself
made once for all upon the cross,
his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension,
and looking for his coming again,
we celebrate, with this bread and this cup,

his one perfect and sufficient sacrifice
 for the sins of the whole world.
 Renew us by your Holy Spirit,
 unite us in the body of your Son,
 and bring us with all your people into the joy of your eternal kingdom;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord,
 with whom, and in whom,
 in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
 we worship you, Father,
 in songs of never-ending praise:

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray:

Our Father in heaven,
 hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come,
 your will be done on earth as in heaven.
 Give us today our daily bread.
 Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
 Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
 For the kingdom, the power,
 and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and the Communion

The Presider breaks the bread and says:
 We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
 We who are many are one body
For we all share in the one bread.

Please sit to sing the Agnus Dei:

Je - sus, Lamb of God, have mer - cy on us. Je - sus, bear - er of our sins, have mer - cy on us. Je - sus, re - deem - er of the world, grant us your peace. grant us your peace.

The Presider says

The Gifts of God for the people of God. Come, let us take this holy sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ, in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

Communion Motet

Please remain seated while the choir sings
Ave Verum Corpus - E. Elgar (1857-1934)

The Sending Out of God's People

Lord God, the springing source of everlasting light,
pour into the hearts of your faithful people
the brilliance of your eternal splendour,
that we, who by kindling flames have lit up this temple to your glory,
may have the darkness of our souls dispelled,
and so be counted worthy to stand before you
in that eternal city where you live and reign,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Father,
we offer ourselves to you as a living sacrifice,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit
to live and work to your praise and glory.

Hymn

King of glory, King of peace - TiS 201 (Tune: Gwalchmai)

The Blessing and Dismissal

Christ, whose glory fills the skies, fill you with radiance and scatter the darkness from your path.

Christ, the Sun of Righteousness, gladden your eyes and warm your heart.

Christ, the Dayspring from on high, guide your feet into the way of peace.

And the ~~o~~ blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Go in the light and peace of Christ.

Thanks be to God.
