THE INTRODUCTION

Entrance Hymn

Christ is made the sure foundation (Tune: Westminster Abbey)

- 1. Christ is made the sure foundation, Christ the head and cornerstone, chosen by the Lord, and precious, binding all the church in one,
holy Zion's help for ever,
and her confidence alone.
- 2. All that dedicated city, dearly loved by God on high,
in exultant jubilation
pours perpetual melody, God the Three in One adoring, praising him eternally.
- 3. Here among us, where we call you come, O Lord our God, today; with your gentle lovingkindness hear your people as we pray, and your fullest benediction pour upon us here today.
- 4. Praise and honour to the Father, praise and honour to the Son, praise and honour to the Spirit, ever Three and ever One,
one in might and one in glory while eternal ages run.

We make our prayers in the Name of God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

The Sentences, Confession and Absolution

Confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. [James 5.16]

Return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love. [Joel 2.13]

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. [1 John 1.8–9]

Dear friends, the Scriptures urge us to acknowledge our sins, and not to conceal them from God our heavenly Father, but to confess them with a penitent and obedient heart, so that we may be forgiven through his infinite goodness and mercy.

We ought always to admit our sins before God, and especially when we come together to give thanks for the good things we have received at his hands, to offer the praise that is his due, to hear his holy word, and to ask what is necessary for the body as well as the soul.

Therefore, let us draw near to the throne of our gracious God, as we pray:

Please be seated

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have strayed from your ways like lost sheep, we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against your holy laws.
We have left undone what we ought to have done, and we have done what we ought not to have done.
Yet, good Lord, have mercy on us;
restore those who are penitent, according to your promises declared in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Grant, most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may live godly, righteous and sober lives to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has no pleasure in the death of sinners, but would rather they should turn from their wickedness and live.

He has given authority to his ministers to declare to his people who repent the forgiveness of sins.

God pardons all who truly repent and believe his holy gospel. And so we ask him to grant us true repentance, and his Holy Spirit, that what we do now may please him, and that the rest of our lives may be pure and holy; so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The First Reading

A Reading from Paul's Letter to the Romans

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh - for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ - if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

[Romans 8.12-17]

Here ends the first reading

Hymn

I bind unto myself today (Tune: St Patrick)

I bind unto myself today
the strong name of the Trinity
by invocation of the same,
the Three in One, and One in Three.

I bind this day to me forever,
by power of faith,
Christ's incarnation,
his baptism in the Jordan river,
his death on cross for my salvation, his bursting from the spiced tomb, his riding up the heavenly way,
his coming at the day of doom:
I bind unto myself today.

Against all Satan's spells and wiles, against false words of heresy, against the knowledge that defiles, against the heart's idolatry, against the wizard's evil craft, against the death wound and the burning,
the choking wave, the poisoned shaft, protect me, Christ, till your returning.

I bind unto myself the name,
the strong name of the Trinity,
by invocation of the same,
the Three in One, and One in Three,
of whom all nature has creation, eternal Father, Spirit, Word.
Praise to the Lord of my salvation:
salvation is of Christ the Lord. Amen.

A Reading from the Gospel of John, Chapter 3, beginning at the 1st verse.

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God." Jesus answered him, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above." Nicodemus said to him, "How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.' The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?" Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? "Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. “Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.”

Here ends the second reading.

The Sermon – The Rector

THE BENEDICTUS – THE SONG OF ZECHARIAH

Chant: Joseph Barnby

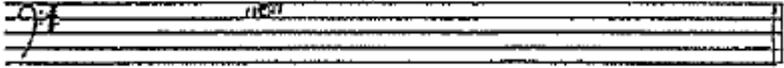

*Blessed be the Lord God of Israel:
for he hath visited and redeemed his people;
and hath raised up a mighty salvation for us:
in the house of his servant David;
as he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets:
which have been since the world began;
that we should be saved from our enemies:
and from the hands of all that hate us;
to perform the mercy promised to our forefathers:
and to remember his holy Covenant;
to perform the oath:
which he sware to our forefather Abraham;
that he would give us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies:
might serve him without fear;
in holiness and righteousness before him:
all the days of our life.*

*And thou Child shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest:
for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;
to give knowledge of salvation unto his people:
for the remission of their sins,
through the tender mercy of our God:
whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us;
to give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death:
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.*

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son:
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen.

THE COLLECTS

O blessed Trinity,
in whom we know the Maker of all things, seen and unseen, the Saviour of all, both near and far:
by your Spirit enable us so to worship your divine majesty, that with all the company of heaven we may magnify your glorious name, saying, Holy, holy, holy. Glory to you, O Lord most high. Amen.

O God, the author and lover of peace, in knowledge of whom stands our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; defend your servants in all assaults of our enemies, that, surely trusting in your defence, we may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord, our heavenly Father, almighty and everlasting God,
we thank you for bringing us safely to this day:
keep us by your mighty power,
and grant that we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger;

Hymn

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God almighty (Tune: Nicea)

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God almighty, early in the morning to you our praise shall be;
holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty
God in three persons, blessed Trinity.

Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore you, casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
cherubim and seraphim falling down before you,
God everlasting through eternity.

Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide you, though the sinful human eye your glory may not see, you alone are holy, there is none beside you perfect in power, in love and purity.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God almighty, all your works shall praise your name in earth and sky and sea;
holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty
God in three persons, blessed Trinity.

THE PRAYERS

Lord God almighty, ruler of the nations of the earth, give wisdom to the Prime Minister of Australia, Scott Morrison, and the Premier of this State, Gladys Berejiklian, to the members of Federal and State Parliament, our Local Council, and to all who hold office in this land.
Grant that their decisions may be based on wise counsel, so that peace and welfare, truth and justice may prevail among us,
and make us a blessing to other nations;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty and eternal God, you alone work great marvels:
send down your Spirit of saving grace on all Christian people.
Bless our bishops, clergy and congregations:
pour upon them the continual dew of your blessing that they may truly please you.
Grant this, for the honour of Jesus Christ our advocate and mediator. Amen.

God of providence, God of love, we pray for all people:
make your way known to them, your saving power among all nations.
We pray for the welfare of your Church throughout the world:
guide and govern it by your Spirit, so that all who call themselves Christians may be led in the way of truth and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life.
We commend to your fatherly goodness all who are afflicted or distressed in body, mind or circumstances, especially those named on our prayer list.
Relieve them according to their needs, giving them patience in their sufferings, and deliverance from their afflictions.
This we ask for the sake of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

All: Almighty God and merciful Father, we give you hearty thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all people.
We bless you for our creation and preservation, and all the blessings of this life;
but above all, for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ, for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we pray, give us such a sense of all your mercies, that our hearts may be truly thankful and that we may praise you not only with our lips, but in our lives, serving you in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit, be honour and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE NEW ANGLICAN ARCHBISHOP OF SYDNEY

Last Friday evening The Most Reverend Kanishka Raffel was consecrated Bishop and installed as the 10th Archbishop of Sydney. Please pray for our Archbishop in this important ministry with us.

A PRAYER FOR OUR ARCHBISHOP

who raised up your faithful servant Kanishka Raffel to be an Archbishop in your Church

ST LUKE'S ORGAN PROTECTION APPEAL 2021

Our beautiful Fincham organ suffered severe damage in February 2020 when it was inundated with water through the church tower during a massive storm. In consultation with our insurers, Pierce Pipe Organs (a Brisbane based firm) has removed the damaged sections of the instrument and repairs are almost completed. Unfortunately, our insurance claim did not extend to additional works to the tower, required to prevent damage of a similar magnitude occurring in the future. The Wardens and Rector resolved that it would be unconscionable to reinstall the repaired organ without undertaking improvements to protect it into the future. This work will cost the Parish in excess of $20,000 to complete. So, last Sunday, an appeal to raise funds to cover the expense of improvements to the church tower was launched. A letter of explanation and donation form is available in the vestibule, if you have not yet received a copy. Work to the tower is well underway and should be completed this week. Your financial support of this work will be greatly appreciated. Please speak to the Rector or Wardens (Paula Turner, David Burke or Nick Moser) if you have any questions.

OFFERTORY - PARISH DONATION TAP POINT

There is a "Tap and Go" donation point in the vestibule, next to the Offertory bowl, if you prefer to give your Offertory contact free. All that is required for use is a Debit or Credit card, which you hold against the device momentarily. The level of donation is preset at $30. The device will indicate when your donation has been made, then simply remove the card and carefully put it away in your wallet or purse, so you don't inadvertently lose it. If you have any queries, please speak to one of the Wardens: Paula Turner, David Burke or Nick Moser.
