Welcome

A warm welcome to all who are worshipping with us at this All Souls' Memorial Eucharist. This service with its Liturgy of the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed allows us to remember with thanksgiving before God, those we have known, who have enriched our lives, who have nurtured us in faith.

If you are visiting or new to St Luke's, please make yourself known as we would like to make you feel at home with us. Please also join us for morning tea in the Lower Hall at the conclusion of the service.

Some further information which should assist you in your time here at St Luke's is set out on the next page, together with the names of people we are holding in prayer at this time.

In our service today, I will be Presiding; the Reverend Peter Kurti, Associate Priest, will be assisting as Deacon. Our Lay Minister, Natalie McDonald, will be Preaching. Kids@Church will be lead by Danielle Firholz and Charlotte Chesterfield.

-cy. Christ, have mer-cy, Christ, have mer-cy, Christ, have mer - -cy. Lord, have mer-cy, Lord, have mer-cy, Lord, have mer - cy.

Invitation to Confession and Absolution

God has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of his glory in the face of Christ.

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels to show that the transcendent power belongs to God and not to us.

As we acknowledge our human frailty,

we call to mind our sins of word, deed and omission,

and confess them before God our Father.

Merciful God,

our maker and our judge,

we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

and in what we have failed to do:

we have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;

we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.

Father, forgive us.

Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God,
who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:
pardon you and set you free from all your sins,
strengthen you in all goodness
and keep you in eternal life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect

We thank you, loving God,
for all your servants, known to us and unknown,
who have departed this life in your faith and fear:
give us grace so to follow their good examples,
that with them we may be brought to a joyful resurrection,
and be made partakers of your heavenly kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen

The Ministry of the Word

The First Reading

Please be seated

A reading from the book of Job

“A mortal, born of woman, few of days and full of trouble, comes up like a flower and withers, flees like a shadow and does not last. Do you fix your eyes on such a one? Do you bring me into judgment with you? Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? No one can. Since their days are determined, and the number of their months is known to you, and you have appointed the bounds that they cannot pass, look away from them, and desist, that they may enjoy, like labourers, their days.”

“For there is hope for a tree, if it is cut down, that it will sprout again, and that its shoots will not cease. Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stump dies in the ground, yet at the scent of water it will bud and put forth branches like a young plant. But mortals die, and are laid low; humans expire, and where are they? As waters fail from a lake, and a river wastes away and dries up, so mortals lie down and do not rise again; until the heavens are no more, they will not awake or be roused out of their sleep.

Oh that you would hide me in Sheol, that you would conceal me until your wrath is past, that you would appoint me a set time, and remember me! If mortals die, will they live again? All the days of my service I would wait until my release should come.”

[Job 14.1-14]

Hear the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Please remain seated while the choir sings the Psalm

Psalm 29 - Chant by I. A. Atkins

Bring unto the Lord O ye mighty, bring your rams unto the Lord:

ascribe unto the Lord worship and strength.

Give the Lord the honour due unto his Name:

worship the Lord with holy worship.

It is the Lord that commandeth the waters:

it is the glorious God that maketh the thunder.

It is the Lord that ruleth the sea, the voice of the Lord is mighty in operation:

the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedar-trees:

yea the Lord breaketh the cedars of Libanus.

He maketh them also to skip like a calf:

Libanus also and Sirion like a young unicorn.

The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire, the voice of the Lord

shaketh the wilderness:

yea the Lord shaketh the wilderness of Cades.

The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to bring forth young, and discovereth the thick bushes:

in his temple doth every man speak in his honour.

The Lord sitteth above the water-flood:

and the Lord remaineth a King for ever.

The Lord shall give strength unto his people:

the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

The Second Reading:

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Romans

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

[Romans 6.3-9]

The Gospel Reading

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

“It is the will of him who sent me,” says the Lord, “that I should lose none of all that he has given me, but raise them up on the last day.” Alleluia.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint John, Chapter 5, beginning at the 19th verse.

✠Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing on his own, but only what he sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise. The Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing; and he will show him greater works than these, so that you will be astonished. Indeed, just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomsoever he wishes. The Father judges no one but has given all judgement to the Son, so that all may honour the Son just as they honour the Father. Anyone who does not honour the Son does not honour the Father who sent him. Very truly, I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgement, but has passed from death to life.”

“Very truly, I tell you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself; and he has given him authority to execute judgement, because he is the Son of Man. Do not be astonished at this; for the hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice and will come out—those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.”

[John 5. 19-29]

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

✠Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Sermon - Natalie McDonald, Lay Minister

The Liturgy of Commemoration of the Faithful Departed

Please stand as the Procession moves to the rear of the church

You are worthy, our Lord and God,
to receive glory and honour and power.

All: For you have created all things,
and by your will they have their being.

You are worthy, O Lamb, for you were slain,
and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and nation.

All: You have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God, and they will reign with you on earth.

The procession will now move to the sanctuary with the Funeral Register and the Remembrance Prayer List which will be placed before the Altar.

This is the will of him that sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me.

All: And I will raise them up at the last day.

Lord God,
creator of all,
you have made us creatures of this earth,
but have also promised us a share in life eternal.
According to your promises,
may all who have died in the peace of Christ come with your saints to the joys of your kingdom,
where there will be neither sorrow nor pain,
but life everlasting.

All: Alleluia. Amen.

Grant to us, Lord God,
to trust you not for ourselves alone,
but for those also whom we love
and who are hidden from us by the shadow of death;
that, as we believe your power to have raised our Lord Jesus Christ
from the dead,
so may we trust your love
to give eternal life to all who believe in him;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever.

All: Amen.

All: Give rest, O Christ, to all your servants with the saints:
where sorrow and pain are no more,
neither sighing, but life everlasting.

You only are immortal, the creator and maker of all:
and we are mortal, formed from the dust of the earth,
and unto earth shall we return.

For so you ordained when you created me, saying:
'Dust you are and to dust you shall return.'

All of us go down to the dust,
yet weeping at the grave, we make our song:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All: Give rest, O Christ, to all your servants with the saints:
where sorrow and pain are no more,
neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Hear us, O merciful Father,
as we remember in love
those whom we have placed in your hands.
Acknowledge we pray, the sheep of your own fold,
lambs of your own flock,
sinners of your own redeeming.
Enfold them in the arms of your mercy,
in the blessed rest of everlasting peace,
and in the glorious company of the saints in light.

All: Amen.

The Greeting of Peace

Please remain standing

Jesus says: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.
Not as the world gives do I give you.
Do not let your hearts be troubled,
neither let them be afraid."

The peace of the risen Lord be always with you.

All: And also with you.

We exchange the greeting of peace

The Offertory

Offertory Hymn

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide - TiS 586 (Tune: Eventide)

The Presider says

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.
Through your goodness we have these gifts to share.
Accept and use our offerings for your glory
and for the service of your kingdom.

Blessed be God for ever.

The Great Thanksgiving

Please remain standing

The Sursum Corda

We sing together

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, gracious God,
creator of heaven and earth,
giver of life, and conqueror of death.

By his death on the cross,
your Son Jesus Christ
offered the one true sacrifice for sin,
breaking the power of evil
and putting death to flight.

With all your saints

we give you thanks and praise.

Through his resurrection from the dead
you have given us new birth into a living hope,
into an inheritance which is imperishable,
undefiled, and unfading.

With all your saints

we give you thanks and praise.

The joy of resurrection fills the universe,
 and so we join with angels and archangels,
 and all your faithful people,
 evermore praising you and singing:

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. It begins with a dynamic marking of f (forte) and a tempo marking of 2 (allegretto). The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes, with some rests. The lyrics are: "Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who rit. comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est." The score includes dynamic markings of f and mf (mezzo-forte), and a rit. (ritardando) marking. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Merciful Father, we thank you for these gifts of your creation,
 this bread and wine,
 and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit,
 we who eat and drink them
 may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.
 On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread;
 and when he had given you thanks
 he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,
 'Take eat. This is my body given for you.
 Do this in remembrance of me.'

After supper, he took the cup,
 and again giving you thanks
 he gave it to his disciples, saying,
 'Drink from this, all of you.
 This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
 Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Deacon: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is ris'n. Christ will come a-gain.

Therefore with thanksgiving for the gift of your Son
we here proclaim his passion and death, and his victory over the grave.
Renew us by your Holy Spirit, unite us in the body of your Son and bring us with all your faithful people into the joy of your eternal kingdom;
with whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
we offer our prayer and praise:

Bless - ing and hon - our and glo - ry and pow'r are yours for ev - er and ev - er. A - men.

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come,
your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and the Communion

The Presider breaks the bread and says

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ:

We who are many are one body

For we all share in the one bread.

Please sit to sing the Agnus Dei

Je - sus, Lamb of God, have mer - cy on us. Je - sus, bear - er of our sins, have mer - cy on us. Je - sus, re - deem - er of the world, grant us your peace, grant us your peace.

The gifts of God for the people of God.

Come let us take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

If you are a member of any of the Christian Churches and it is your practise to take communion in your church, you are welcome to receive communion with us. If you do not take communion but would like to receive a blessing you are welcome to come forward and please place your hands by your side.

Please remain seated for the Communion Hymn

Remembrance Sunday Observance

Please stand.

In the presence of God
we commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith
for reconciliation between the nations,
that all people may, together,
live in freedom, justice and peace.
We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror.

We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow
those whose lives,
in world wars and conflicts past and present,
have been given and taken away.
Those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure;
and all who have lived and died in the service of Australia, the Commonwealth, and all the peoples of the world.

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun
and in the morning,
we will remember them.

All: We will remember them.

Lest we forget.

All: Lest we forget.

We will observe two minutes' silence.

The following prayer is said:

Ever-living God
we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence;
may that same peace calm our fears,
bring justice to all peoples
and establish harmony among the nations,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
